*C. M. Eppes High School
Greenville, North Carolina*

"To hold, we'll always try

Our Alma Mater high;

Live long and never die,

Dear Old Eppes High!"

Foreword

In times to come, many changes will be wrought because of the fast-moving world in which we live. To capture and hold the highlights and spirit of our school, so that they will be preserved and not changed with the passing of time is the purpose of this edition of the EPPESONION.

We hope that you, the reader, will be able to examine this book in time to come and say, "That Was The Year That Was!"

The Staff

Supervisor

Mr. A. E. Murrell, Supervisor of Instruction, Greenville
Negro Schools

The promotion of Mr. Murrell to his new position robbed Eppes of one of its ablest teachers.

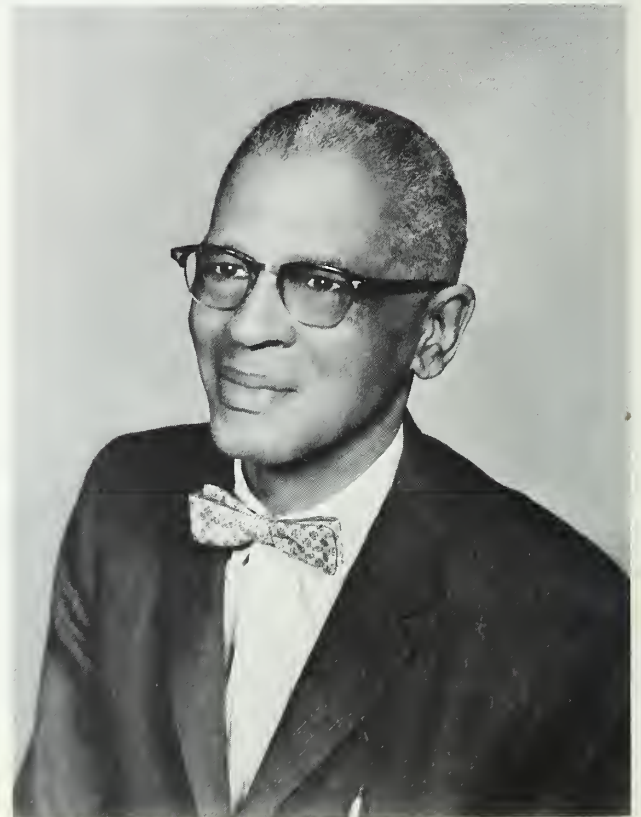

Because of his genuine interest in the growth and development of all young people, we know that he will contribute richly to the improvement of instruction in the Greenville City system.

Principal

MR. W. H. DAVENPORT, Principal

As we are about to leave Eppes, we realize more than ever that we have acquired a sense of the true values of life. We give credit for the ability to discriminate to the wise counsel of our principal, to whom we should like to leave our sincere gratitude.

Dedication

Because of the indelible mark which she has left on us through her gentle guidance, her kindness and patience, and her sympathetic ear in times of distress, we, the class of 1964, proudly dedicate this edition of the EPPESONION to MRS. LULA M. FOSTER.

In Memoriam

VICEY JONES

JACALYN AMES

Why?

Can you tell me why?

Why God Almighty chose the sweetest innocent apple in Eden

To possess the seed of seductiveness that tempted this world to sin?

Why He—hallowed be His name!—has allowed man, the innocent man,

To swallow up and digest the virulent air of gas?

Why He would call a tosspot to preach a blessed sermon—

Can you tell me why—why?

Why He would hew the most healthy, most beautiful, and most fruitful tree

And lay it on the ground and permit it to be resolved to the ground

For earth's rich fur to cover it?

Thy name is sacred! Thy will be done!

TO OUR FRIENDS WHO HELPED

Although this is the finale of our yearbook, our gratitude to you comes first in our hearts, for we realize that without your financial assistance this beautiful record of our daily activities could not have been possible.

If we were in France, we would say, "Merci beaucoup pour votre contribution à ce livre," but since we live in America, we shall say, "Thank you very much for contributing to the success of this book!"
